

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

* * These Manuscripts are of singular interest, and form one of the most curious collections relative to the Crusades, and the Manners, Customs, Habits, and Countries of the East, which has ever occurred in a Public Sale. The first volume contains Flos Terræ Orientis per HAITONUM. Liber de Quibusdam Ultramontanis Partibus per BELOPEN. Libellus de Locis Sanctis a Theodorico editus.—GESTA GODEFRIDI DUCIS DE BOULYON.—ITINERARIUM JOHANNIS DE MANDEVILLE Militis Angliæ. Vol. II. contains Itinerarium Johannis de Mandeville transcriptus anno 1424. Peregrinationes Jacobi de Verona. Itinerarium Johannis de Hesse 1389. Memoriale de Columna de Prerogativa Imperii Romani. Henricus de Hispania de locis in Terra Sancta.

Haiton, the author of the first Narrative, was an Armenian soldier, and an Ambassador. He says, he was accustomed from his youth to note down whatever passed under his observation. There is no Biographical notice of Haiton, which might not be improved by a reference to this Manuscript. Belopen was a noble German, a Soldier by profession, he visited various nations of the East, accompanied by a large retinue, went to Constantinople, Jerusalem, Cairo, &c. and was favourably received by the rulers. He was religious and devout, but ventured to question several miracles. He wished to have visited Sodom and Gomorrah, but was dissuaded by his Saracen Interpreter, who told him, it was more becoming a pilgrim to visit the places God Almighty had blest, than those he had cursed. Belopen says he composed his work ad instantiam Cardinalis Thalayrandi (Talleyrand.) Theoderic's descriptions are partly derived from personal observations, and partly compiled. Jacobus de Verona travelled in 1335, his remarks are highly curious. The Narrative of J. de Hesse has been printed, but this MS. furnishes important corrections of the text. The "Gesta Godefre di ducis de Boulyon" contain many particulars not to be found in any printed Narrative. The writer states he was present at the Crusade. The two copies of MANDEVILLE are highly important. The text in each is infinitely superior to that from which the English edition is translated; they well deserve a critical examination, and would be found invaluable for a new translation.

282 ROBERTI, (Monachi) HISTORIA HIEROSOLYMITANA, FIRST EDITION, without signatures, date, place, or name of the Printer, but ascribed by Serna Santander to the Press of Therhoernen of Cologne. It is printed with the types of the Liber de Remediis in which Therhoernen first employed signatures in 1471, as this has none, we may presume it was printed in 1470,

* * Serna Santander says, This edition is "infiniment rare et peu connue des Bibliographes." The author was Robert, a Benedictine Monk of St. Remi, who wrote the work about 1120. His History of the East is highly interesting. Prefixed to this edition, is a most curious letter of the Emperor, calling on the Earl of Flanders for assistance against the Turks. The picture he draws of the treatment of the Christians by the Turks is horrible in the extreme. Multitudes were butchered, some were dragged to Churches and compelled to blaspheme the Trinity. Virgins were forced to sing obscene songs, and then violated in the presence of their mothers. The treatment of young men, nobles and monks can only be cited in the original, "proh dolor, Sodomitico peccato deludunt et etiam unum sub hoc nefario peccato crepuerunt."
